

John McBride-Mackbrow

October 14, 1928 - January 19, 2014

Obituary

John McBride-Mackbrow was born in Tribbett, Mississippi on October 14, 1928 to the union of Herman and Elenora McBride. John was the first of four children. He was preceded in death by his father and mother; his brothers: Herman Jr. and William Lester; his sisters: Bertha and Magnolia; and his son John Jr.

John confessed hope in Christ at an early age. He was baptized at St. John Baptist Church in Tribbett, MS, under the leadership of Reverend Huff. He moved to Chicago, IL, in the early 1960's where he became a pastor of his church, Seventh Star Missionary Baptist Church, for many years until he became ill. He was a wonderful father and great uncle. He was known for many trades.

On January 19, 2014, at 11:40 p.m. at Kindred Northlake Medical Center, John McBride-Mackbrow transitioned from earth to glory.

John leaves to cherish his memory his children: Ora (William) Robinson, Martha McBride both of Chicago, IL, Shirley (Andre) Butler of Phoenix, AZ, Debra Jones of Blytheville, AR; twenty-two grandchildren; a special granddaughter LaQuica Allen; nineteen great-grandchildren; a very special niece Pearlie Dyes; three sisters: Lena Robinson, Tecora McBride, Charlene (Arron) Thompson of Maryland; and a host of nieces, great nieces, nephews, great nephews, and friends.

Change of Address

I want to let you know that I have moved. I received a call from God, who informed me that my new home was ready and that I could move in immediately. You know that I have been packing up and getting ready to go, but some final touches had to be made. Well my new home is finished and it is such a beautiful sight. It is located in an exclusive estate and it sits behind the pearly gates. There is peace and joy and happiness here and I have no more pain. I could go on and on about my new house but I have to get fitted for my new robe. I look forward to seeing you again. Here is my new address:
